ROYAL SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND

ROYAL SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND Leatherhead, Surrey KT22 8NR Tel: (0372) 375464

President: the Archbishop of Canterbury, Chairman: Alan Clatworthy, Director: Rev. B.A.E. Coote, BD. Founded in London in 1799 as an educational and training centre for poor boys and girls and moved to Leatherhead in 1901.

This charity is now a major national community for 150 blind adults. It is unique in England offering residential care to persons with a very wide range of additional handicaps. These include deafness, some also without speech, crippling diseases, epilepsy and mental handicap. Ages range from 19 to 90 but the majority are under 40.

Residents, all of whom are sponsored by Local Authorities, are accepted from the whole of England and there is no restriction as to race, creed or colour. In order to help as many as possible to return to normal living in the wider community, special help is offered to promote independence. A major redevelopment project has been undertaken at a cost of £4 million to make the 80 year old "school building" suitable to meet this need.

There is an urgent need for this form of residential provision and there is a long waiting list for places. Only 200 are available in England, 150 of these being at Leatherhead. The future of this work depends entirely on voluntary agencies. While co-operating closely with other organisations, the Royal School is completely independent.

Considerable financial assistance is required, in addition to monies already raised, to enable young blind persons to lead normal and purposeful lives.
